

Helena Christensen & Portrait Photographer Mary Ellen Mark Capture™ - Episode 7

VOCABULARY

Hitch – hiking: to get a ride in a passing vehicle by holding out your arm with your thumb up as you stand on the side of the road.

Scope: the area or amount covered, reached, or viewed

Ex. Romance questions are beyond the scope of the language forum.

Standstill: a condition in which all movement or activity has stopped.

Ex. This is an emergency, but the negotiations are at a virtual standstill.

Creepy: strange or scary : causing people to feel nervous and afraid.

Ex. This is the creepy stalker woman from the surveillance video.

To broom: to sweep the floor with a broom.

To kick in: to start to have an effect or to happen.

Ex. The effects of the tranquilizer should begin to kick in within a few minutes.

Harsh: cruel or unkind.

Ex. She was quite harsh with the kids. She should be nicer to them.

Guarded: very careful about giving information, showing feelings, etc.

Vocal: expressing opinions and complaints in a public and forceful way.

Ex. Residents became vocal in their opposition to the plan.

To blow up: to make a photographic enlargement of.

Dull: boring, not exciting or interesting.

To tear up: to damage, remove, or effect an opening in.

Mind-blowing: extremely exciting or surprising.

Ex. The special effects in this film are pretty mind-blowing.

Goosebumps: small bumps on your skin that are caused by cold, fear, or a sudden feeling of excitement.