

Test your knowledge of Education Vocabulary (IELTS preparation)

1. Normally, when a student fails a module, then a resit is required.
 - a) resit
 - b) remake
 - c) repair
2. The required skills will be assessed through appropriate examinations or a system of continuous assessment, by approved competence examiners or assessors who will be neutral and objective in their judgment.
 - a) continual
 - b) continuous
 - c) continuing
3. In some circumstances, a government grant may be awarded for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to an entity rather than as an incentive to undertake specific expenditures.
 - a) fee
 - b) fare
 - c) grant
4. Although she already had a first degree from university, she decided that she wanted to work towards a higher degree later in life.
 - a) further
 - b) higher
 - c) upper
5. Young people should be able to take advantage of the opportunities to acquire knowledge and experience provided by membership of their country in the European Union.
 - a) achieve
 - b) win
 - c) acquire
6. EU assistance has been aimed at strengthening the State education system, to ensure a system accessible to all.
 - a) government
 - b) national
 - c) state
7. Europe should promote the sharing of experience in relation to health education in the various areas.
 - a) body
 - b) vitality
 - c) health

8. With a literacy rate of over 95% among 15- to 24-year-old in the five countries, basic education can be considered satisfactory.
- a) literature
 - b) literacy
 - c) literary
9. People who attend university later in life are called mature students.
- a) old
 - b) aged
 - c) mature
10. It is vitally important for European citizens to possess the necessary knowledge and skills that allow effective communication and facilitate mutual understanding.
- a) skills
 - b) powers
 - c) abilities